

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
A New Genus of Anacardiaceae. . . . Fred A. Barkley	1- 10
New or Otherwise Noteworthy Apocynaceae of Tropical America. V. . . Robert E. Woodson, Jr.	11- 16
A Monograph of the Genus Mertensia in North America. Louis O. Williams	17-159
Observations on the Development of the Male Gametophyte in Certain Monocots. G. T. Johnson and Ruth E. Peck	161-174
Contributions toward a Flora of Panama. I. Collections in the Provinces of Chiriquí, Coclé, and Panamá, by R. J. Seibert during the summer of 1935. Robert E. Woodson, Jr. and Russell J. Seibert	175-210
A Preliminary List of the Lichens of Central Missouri, with Ecological Notes. Edward C. Berry	211-224
Studies in Grindelia . III. Julian A. Steyermark	225-262
Studies in the Anacardiaceae. I. . . . Fred A. Barkley	263-264
A Monographic Study of Rhus and Its Im- mediate Allies in North and Central Amer- ica, including the West Indies. . . . Fred A. Barkley	265-498
Studies in the Anacardiaceae. II. . . Fred A. Barkley	499-500
Monograph of Tetramerium and Henrya George Bippus Happ	501-582
Some Effects of Methyl Cholanthrene on the Morphology and Growth of Yeasts. Carroll William Dodge and Bertha Sanford Dodge	583-590
General Index to Volume XXIV.	591-598